

If a word ends with a consonant and le, those last three letters make the last syllable in the word.

Remember: read one syllable at a time and then blend them together.

Examples:

dimple

giggle

cable

puddle

sprinkle

apple

wiggle

sparkle

purple