

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun or nouns. The words he, she, it, we, you, and they are pronouns.

Examples:

Ontavis is a good student. He works hard.

Heaven and Macy were talking. They got in trouble.

Hunter and I listened to the story. We asked questions after it was over.

Emma skinned her knee. She went to the nurse.

The math test is coming up. It will be Tuesday.