

Plot is what happens in the beginning, middle
and end of a story.

Good readers pay attention to what happens
and the order in which it happens.

Theme is the big idea of the story.

Every story has one big idea.

Good readers think about what they learned to help them understand the big idea (or theme) of the story.